Ancillary Care Management Ranks Ninth in the 2006 Inc. 500 List

Minneapolis, MN (September 5, 2006) – Ancillary Care Management, Inc. (ACM) ranks ninth on Inc. magazine's 2006 Inc. 500*, a list of the nation's fastest-growing private companies.

ACM stands alone as the only Inc. 500 company to make the top ten list for both growth and size. Since its inception in 1995, ACM has been providing systems, services, and provider networks to the nation's leading health plans. Today, ACM serves over 35 million managed care lives, covering a wide range of ancillary and specialty healthcare products and services.

“We are very pleased that our first application to the Inc. 500 placed ACM in the top ten ranking in both growth and size,” said Dave Willcutts, ACM's CEO. “More importantly, we appreciate the support of our clients, partners, and employees in helping ACM to achieve this important honor. We look forward to the opportunity to continue delivering innovative solutions for the management of the growing healthcare spend,” added Willcutts.
